Will Advertise Good Roads Meet
Chamber Committee Meets With Field Representative of Work.
The preliminary meeting of the Chamber of Commerce committee on publicity in connection with the National Good Roads Congress which will convene in this city November 20-23, was held in the office of Secretary Dunlop yesterday morning.
For the most part, the deliberations of the committee were taken up with discussing the best methods of giving wide publicity to the convention in various parts of the State. Charles P. Light, chief field representative of the American Association for Highway Improvement, under the auspices of which the convention will be held, appeared before the committee and made suggestions in regard to the publicity campaign in Virginia.
Enlist County Officers.
Letters from the Chamber of Commerce will be mailed to county superintendents of the State and to a number of others interested in good roads. Advertising matter for other States will be sent out from the bureau in Washington.
Following are the members of the committee: Lewis C. Williams, chairman; Samuel Cohen, W. S. Rhoads, W. P. Nelson, S. T. Beveridge, R. W. Simpson, Jr., John D. Murrell, V. C. Olmstead, J. L. Hart and S. H. Hawes.
Most important of the matters to be taken up by the convention will be the construction of a national highway between the city and Washington as a memorial to President Lincoln, at the cost of $2,000,000. Various other plans for the Lincoln memorial have been discussed, but none has met with quite the approval that a national highway seems to have.
Washington and the capital of the Confederacy. Mr. Light and other officers of the association are in favor of the "capital-to-capital" route, and that direction will be accomplished at the convention.
